Top 10 Campings in Costa Blanca

The 2025 Guide by Costa Blanca Digital

Discover the best spots for nature, beaches, and camper life along Spain's sunniest coastline.

1. Camping Villasol – Benidorm

Family-friendly, great pools, and close to the vibrant Levante Beach. A top choice for all ages.

2. Camping Cap-Blanch – Altea

Laid-back camping by the sea, with palm trees, pebble beach views, and walking access to the Altea promenade.

3. Fonts de l'Algar – Callosa d'en Sarrià

A unique inland setting near waterfalls and natural pools. Ideal for tent lovers and nature escapes.

4. Camping Jávea – Jávea

Clean, modern facilities in a prime location between beaches, coves, and the old town.

5. Camping CalpeMar – Calpe

Small, quiet, and perfectly located just minutes from Calpe's beaches and old town center.

6. Camping Moraira – Moraira

A relaxed site surrounded by pine trees, ideal for long stays or quiet breaks near the coast.

7. Vall de Laguar Eco Camping – Vall de Laguar

Rustic, off-grid camping in the mountains. A hiker's dream with spectacular inland views.

8. Camping El Torres – Villajoyosa

Beachfront pitches, modern amenities, and one of the best campervan setups on the coast.

9. Camping La Naranja – Gandía

Affordable, well-equipped, and close to both town and beach — great for seasonal stays.

10. Camper Àrea El Verger – El Verger

Modern area with all the essentials for road trippers. Quick beach access and calm surroundings.

Editor's Note

This list is based on local reviews, traveler feedback, and insider recommendations. From mountains to the Mediterranean, the Costa Blanca offers something for every camping style.
